Subj: Proposed Amendment to the National Bylaws/National Administrative Procedures (NBL/NAP), Article Nine, Section 940.

In accordance with the Bylaws Article XI, Sections 1100, the following is submitted for consideration by the body assembled at the 2023 National Convention.

CURRENT SECTION:

Section 940. Election of Officers

a. Each detachment shall hold an annual election and installation of officers between September 1 and May 15. Installation must be conducted no later than the last day of the month subsequent to the election. The "Report of Installation" form must be received by the National Headquarters by June 30th of each year to establish credentials for the National Convention. A Detachment is NOT in good standing if this report is not received.

PROPOSED SECTION:

a. Each detachment shall hold an annual election and installation of officers between September 1 and May 15. Installation must be conducted no later than the last day of the month subsequent to the election. The "Report of Installation-Detachment" form must be submitted within five (5) days of installation to ensure that it is received at National Headquarters by June 30th of each year to establish credentials for the National Convention. A Detachment is NOT in good standing if this report is not received..

CHANGE RATIONALE: A full report of all Detachment officers is not needed. The form should be completed and submitted within five (5) days – the same time frame for turnover of records and property from one officer position to their successor. It must be submitted only for those positions that changed. The form name is Report of Officer Installation – Detachment and should be shown in NAP as Enclosure 6. Presently the form shown in the NAP is the Report of Officer Installation—Department. .

Respectfully Submitted,
